

Data Protection Statement

Use and sharing

In principle, all personal information will be treated confidentially. Information necessary for business dealings will be saved and, if necessary, shared with associated companies. We will generally take all organisational and technical precautions to protect your information. When processing information, your concerns regarding confidentiality will be taken into consideration pursuant to legislation.

We assure you that your personal information will not, under any circumstances, be shared with third parties except to the extent that is necessary to process your customer requests. Moreover, we will not share your information with market-information providers.

Use of web statistics and cookies<sup>1</sup>

Web statistics

We store statistics on how our website is accessed for internal checks and to optimise our website. Among other data, this includes: date and time information as well as the visitor's IP address and/or the address of the originating website from which you access our website. Data is stored anonymously without identifying you as a user of our website. As part of these statistics, we gather information including when and how often our website was accessed. We then evaluate this information for internal purposes and do not share this information with third parties.

Cookies

We do not currently use cookies.

Your privacy rights – precautionary information

If we need to collect data from you, the following applies: pursuant to Section 28, Paragraph 4 of the German Data Protection Act (BDSG) [Section 22a of the Data Protection Act of the Federal State of Bremen (BrDSG)] and Section 4, Paragraph 3 of the German Teleservices Data Privacy Act (TDDSG), you can object at any time to the above-mentioned use and/or processing of your data by informing Jöllenneck GmbH. Following receipt of your objection or revocation, the information concerned will no longer be used, processed or shared. If requested, your data will be deleted.

Social networks

We do not currently use social networks such as Facebook, Google Plus and Twitter with/ on our website.